Since I have this extra space, I thought I would report on my annual religious pilgrimage to Phoenix. But for one rule violation, and one bad inning, we were 6-0! In the first game, we scored the winning run in the bottom of the ninth before we had let every one hit. In our division, each player must get at least one at bat per game. We had not batted our pitcher yet. The winning run was supposed to stop at third so we could get our last batter into the game, thus, we lose. We played our second game of the day in the rain. This rain resulted in the postponement of our Tuesday morning game until 11:45PM - we didn't actually start until 12:15AM. We were up by 7 in the bottom of the 7th in a 7 inning game, fell apart, the other team tied it, then won the game in the 8th. We won our next two games that day, and won the sixth and last game, the best of the tournament, 6-5! A great time. And our best showing ever at 4-2!
